Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
3. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

Please See Extra Sheet.

1. ☒ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☐ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

Remark on Protest

The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.

No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

Box III TEXT OF THE ABSTRACT (Continuation of item 5 of the first sheet)

NEW ABSTRACT

A method of pre-paid Internet access comprising accessing the Internet using a prepaid account and performing one or more activities while connected to said Internet, which activities modify the balance in addition to the act of access which causes a deduction from the balance of said account. A configuration of a preferred embodiment of the invention is illustrated in Figure 1. When a user computer (12) is to be connected to the Internet (14), the connection is preferably mediated by a pre-paid server (16), which manages the act of connecting user (12) to Internet (14) and also acts to bill the user for the Internet access. Once user (12) is connected to Internet (14), the connection may pass through pre-paid server (16). Alternatively or additionally, the set-up connection may be direct between user (12) and Internet (14).

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION WAS LACKING

This ISA found multiple inventions as follows:

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be searched, the appropriate additional search fees must be paid.

Group I: Claims 1-37, 44-50 and 69-87 are drawn to a method of payment and billing for the Internet access.

Group II: Claims 38-43 are drawn to the Internet connection including selection of an ISP (Internet Service Provider).

Group III: Claims 51-54 are drawn to a method of configuring a computer for the Internet access.

Group IV: Claims 55-58 are drawn to a method of placing and controlling presentation of an electronic advertisement based on a prepaid account.

Group V: Claims 59-63 are drawn to a system for construction of a WWW site based on inputs from a user.

and

Group VI: Claims 64-68 are drawn to a method of connection to a URL on the Internet.

The inventions listed as Groups I through VI do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I is drawn to a method of payment and billing for the Internet access. The inventions recited in Groups II-VI lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group I.

Group II is drawn to a method for the Internet connection via selection of an ISP. The inventions recited in Groups I and III-VI lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group II.

Group III is drawn to a method of configuring a computer for the Internet access. The inventions recited in Groups I, II and IV-VI lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group III.

Group IV is drawn to a method of placing and controlling presentation of an electronic advertisement based on a prepaid account. The inventions recited in Groups I-III, V and VI lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group IV.

Group V is drawn to a system for construction of a WWW site based on inputs from a user. The inventions recited in Groups I-IV and VI lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group V.

Group VI is drawn to a method of connection to a URL on the Internet. The inventions recited in Groups I-V lack technical features to form a single inventive concept present in Group V.
